

Always bear in mind that your own resolution to succeed is more important than any other one thing.

Abraham Lincoln

When one door of happiness closes, another opens; but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one which has been opened for us.

Helen Keller

To fly, we have to have resistance.

Maya Lin

For it must needs be, that there is an opposition in all things. If not so ... righteousness could not be brought to pass, neither wickedness, neither holiness nor misery, neither good nor bad..."

The Book of Mormon

"I asked you a question, buddy. ... What's the square root of 5,248?"