

I must study politics and war that my sons may have liberty to study mathematics and philosophy. My sons ought to study mathematics and philosophy, geography, natural history, naval architecture, navigation, commerce and agriculture in order to give their children a right to study painting, poetry, music, architecture, statuary, tapestry, and porcelain.

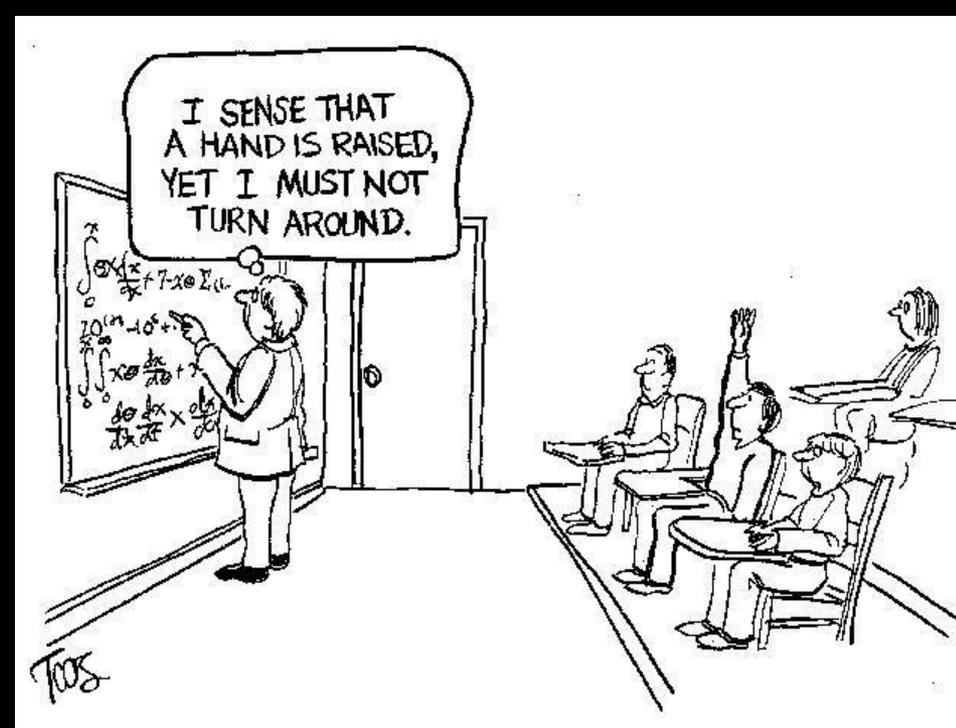

John Adams

If you study to remember, you will forget, but if you study to understand, you will remember.

Unknown

You cannot teach a man anything; you can only help him find it within himself.

Galileo

TEACHER:

Harold, what do you call a person who keeps on talking when people are no longer interested?

HAROLD:

A teacher
